

Larrie' Ann Jarvis

Youth Program Manager,

Navy Personnel Command

March 8, 2004

Youth Programs

Mission First... Sailors Always

2004 Youth Program Scope

SAC

- 103 Facilities at 85 Programs
- 12,477 Spaces

Youth

- 103 Facilities at 69 Programs
- 50,000 – 60,000 patrons/year

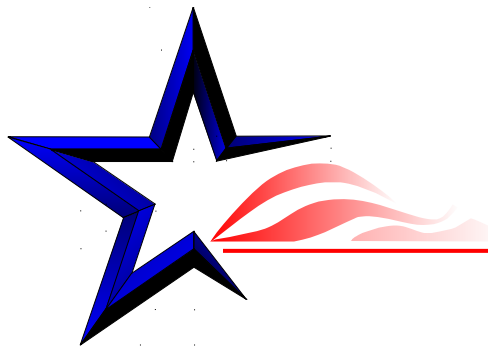

Teen Employment

Funded with CD supplemental money

Summer 2002: 15 bases applied and received grants from NPC, Approximately 140 teens were employed within MWR. Cost: 240K

Summer 2003: 30 bases applied and received grants from NPC, Approximately 200 teens were employed within MWR. Cost: 300K

Summer 2004: 400K budgeted

Outdoor Adventure Camps

1. Dam neck Youth Outdoor Adventure Camp

- Summer 2001 to present

2. NW Youth Outdoor Adventure Camp

- Summer 2002, ended February 2004

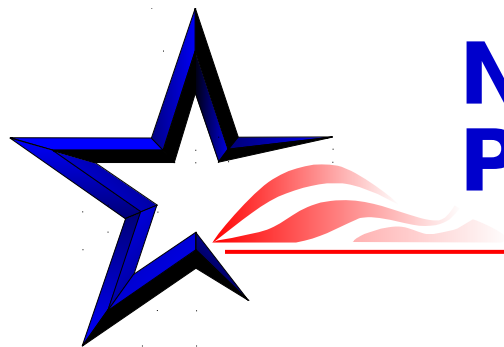

3. San Diego Youth Outdoor Adventure Camp

- Summer 2003 to present

May get cut
due to field budget reductions.
Eligible to use CD $

How did we do it??

Recruited College interns with backgrounds on OREC and/or Youth, enlisted resources from the Outdoor Adventure Center and coordinated closely with the Youth and Outdoor Recreation Programs in Region as well as the Marketing department.

NAFCON Youth Center Projects

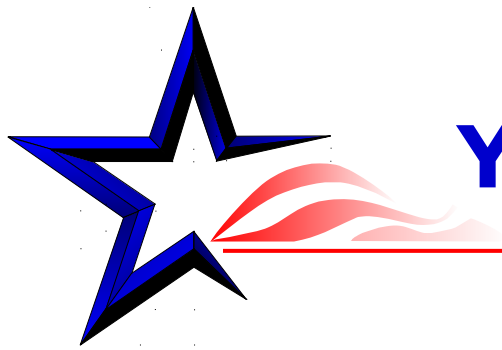

Youth centers support SAC (MILCONS are not authorized for CONUS)

New Youth Centers/renovations

- ✓ Charleston, SC renovation opened May 2003
- ✓ Brunswick, Maine opened in August 2003
- ✓ Bremerton, WA opened January 2004

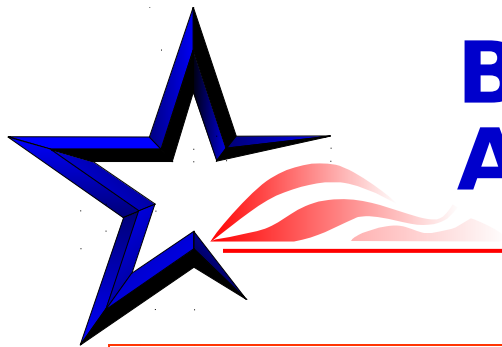

Youth Center Projects

- Lemoore, CA new Youth Center- Construction scheduled to be completed August 2004.
- Whidbey, WA new Youth center- Construction scheduled to be completed in October 2004.
- Port Hueneme, CA new Youth Center- Construction scheduled to be complete in February 2005.

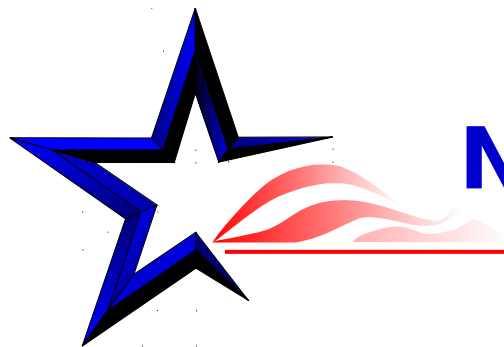

Youth DoDI

- In Draft (see separate attachments)
- DoD has completed all formal coordination and currently waiting to clear OGC (Legal Council).

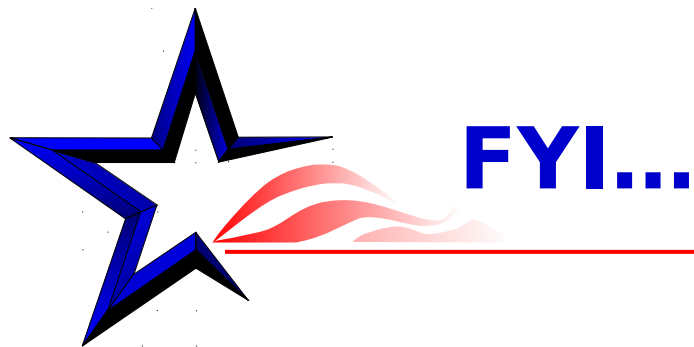

Boys and Girls Clubs of America

- 90% affiliated
- 6 programs are in process
- Earle, Fallon, Ft Worth, Monterey, Newport
- 100% WILL BE affiliated BY FY 04
- Once DoDI is published, certain BGCA programs will be required.

NSACA Accreditation

- DoD has published a policy letter requiring that ALL services are accredited by a national entity, i.e. National School Age Care Alliance (NSACA).
- Two Navy programs are accredited (Corry Station and New London).
- Scheduled to have an accreditation visits in 2004 are China Lake, Key West and Rota.
- All Navy SAC programs must be accredited by CY 2006.

- Navy Youth Webpage...includes worldwide youth directory, instructions, sample forms, pictures, useful links/resources, BGCA information, “what’s new” section.
- NEW!!! Teen website...just for teens.
- Teen Scholarship camps are not being offered by NPC for the summer 2004.